What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The Risk Indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for a minimum of 5 Years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may have to pay significant extra costs to cash in early.

The Fund is ranked at 4 out of 7, which is a medium to high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of the fund to pay you. The indicator may not adequately take into account the following risks of investing in this Fund:

Liquidity risk: The risk that assets may not be saleable immediately at a price consistent with that observed for valuations purposes.

Currency risk: Investors not investing in their local currency will additionally be exposed to fluctuations of the exchange rate between their local currency and the currency class in which they invested.

Hedging risk: The Fund may utilise financial instruments for the purposes of hedging against declines in the value of the Fund's long positions by increases in the value of the Fund's short positions and vice versa. Hedging against a decline in the value of the Fund's positions does not eliminate fluctuations in the values of the Fund's positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline, but establishes other positions designed to gain from those same developments, thus offsetting the decline in the Fund's positions' value. Such hedging transactions also limit the opportunity for gain if the value of the Fund's positions should increase. Moreover, it may not always be possible for the Fund to execute hedging transactions or to do so at prices, rates or levels advantageous to the Fund.

Issuer Risk. The value of securities purchased may decline for a number of reasons which directly relate to the issuers of those securities, such as, for example, management performance, financial leverage and reduced demand for the issuer's goods and services.

Management Risk. The Investment Manager's judgments about the selection of securities for a Fund may prove to be incorrect and there can be no assurance that they will produce the desired results.

For further risk information please see the Prospectus and the Fund Supplement.

What happens if Waystone Management Company (IE) Limited is unable to pay out?

The Management Company of the Fund has no obligation to pay out since the Fund design does not contemplate any such payment being made. You are not covered by any national compensation scheme. To protect you, the assets are held with a separate company, a depository. Should the Fund default, the depository would liquidate the investments and distribute the proceeds to the investors. In the worst case, however, you could lose your entire investment
